DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1, 2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the acknowledged prior art of the immediate application in view of Kent (US6101755).

1. Regarding claims 1, 2, and 4, the acknowledged prior art of Figures 1 and 2 substantially disclose the invention of the immediate application, as described by the applicant in line 9 of page 1-line 2 of page 2 of the immediate specification.

2. The acknowledged prior art of figures 1 and 2 does not disclose a bearing for receiving fishing line therein which is trapped but slidable on and rotatable about the ring.

3. Kent (US6101755) discloses a bearing for receiving fishing line therein 12, 14 which is trapped but slidable and rotatable about a ring (unnumbered top of element 15 in figure 2).

4. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to apply the teaching of Kent of a bearing which is trapped and rotatable about the ring to the acknowledged prior art of a swivel with a ring and a collar in order to reduce torque and tension on the line by allowing the bearing to move more freely about the ring.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 3, 5, and 6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art of record does not disclose a pulley system connection between the fishing line and the swivel.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Seaton US2561144; Pflueger US1856043; Frazier US5926996; Boucher, Jr. US5953849; Calvani US6588075; Rhoades US4798022.
